

UC San Diego

SHILEY EYE CENTER

NIH Ranking Raised for the Second Consecutive Year

UC San Diego Shiley Eye Center catapults to #4 nationally in funding from the National Institutes of Health (NIH) in 2013. UC San Diego / Shiley Eye Center researchers received $8.6 million in funding from the NIH and is the highest ranked institution on the entire west coast. “We are grateful to the NIH for their recognition of the outstanding research performed at the Shiley Eye Center at UC San Diego,” Robert N. Weinreb, MD, Chair Department of Ophthalmology, Director of the UCSD Shiley Eye Center, “Needless to say, we are extremely proud of our vision scientists.”

Top 5 Ophthalmology NIH Funding 2013

From the Blue Ridge Institute for Medical Research (BRIMR.ORG)

| Rank | Institution |
|-------------|-------------------------------------|
| 1 | Johns Hopkins University |
| 2 | University of Illinois |
| 3 | University of Pennsylvania |
| 4 | University of California, San Diego |
| 5 | Oregon Health & Sciences University |

January, 2014